This month the children really enjoyed learning the following story.

STORY: Aliens Love Panta Claus

The aliens are excited, as tomorrow's Christmas Day. So instead of stealing underpants, they're giving them away!

They jump into their spaceships -wheel! And Whizz off to Lapland. Full of the Christmas spirit. To give Santa Claus a hand. The aliens read the letters out. From all the girls and boys. And just for fun, they add a pair. Of pants in with their toys! In Santa's busy workshop, they cause lots of jolly snickers. When dressing up the little elves. In fancy frilly knickers. The reindeer wear their underpants lit up all bright and glowing with neon pants to light the way. It helps show where they're going!

Great! Santa's nearly ready. But shh, when he turns his back the aliens swap a spotted pair of bloomers for his sack!

Ho-ho-ho laughs Santa. But his smile turns to a frown he won't be going anywhere. His sleigh has broken down. It's aliens to the rescue. With their spaceship for a sleigh so reindeer bells a jingling here comes panta calus-hooray!

They hover over rooftops and it really is fantastic how santa shoots down chimneys on a rope of pants elastic. The aliens follow santa as he tiptoes to each bed. They take down all the stockings and tie knickers up instead. They decorate our christmas tree with festive knicker cheer. And leave out underpants that say an alien woz 'ere!

Then, mission done. They fly back home. To plan their next attack. So hold on to your underpants, the aliens will be back!
